

SRW Minutes

October 16, 2017

Penny Doyel called the meeting to order at the Morning Glory Gallery at 7:10PM.

Members Present: Tara Thomas, Haley Thomas, Sandy Pait, Louise Theberge, Patricia Cowan, Robin Rice, Regina and John Adams, Gailon Friant, Joan Miles, Joanie Powell and Penny Doyel.

Guest: Brenda Mack and Damien Kelly, candidates for At-Large Gloucester County School Board

Sandy Pait opened with a devotion and led the Pledge of Allegiance

The minutes were accepted as written.

Tara presented the Treasurer's report; balance is 1344.00. She is collecting dues. $25 for members and $10 for Associates.

Robin Rice introduced the two candidates. We gave them 3 minutes to give us an overview and then asked questions. Then questions were taken from the audience. At 8:40 the candidates were excused and we finished the business meeting.

Fundraising- another wine tasting was discussed. Probably late February or early March. Lorraine can pick a date that works for her.

We discussed membership. Carolyn Treyz has asked to be removed. Carol Patnode cannot make meetings, but will pay her dues and remain a member. We have not been able to contact Carrie Kitchell. Will keep trying.

Patricia presented the slate of officers for 2018

President- Ginny Smith

1st VP – Robin Rice

2nd VP- Penny Doyel

Secretary – Sandy Pait

Treasurer – Tara Thomas

Regina motioned that the slate be accepted by acclamation. Motion passed.

Patricia will install the officers at the December meeting.

Sandy discussed the Candidates Forum on October 24 at the Moose Lodge. Time line was discussed and volunteers enlisted for specific jobs. We discussed the cost of the Deputy and printing. We had voted to spend up to $75.00, but we said we would spend whatever half of the expenses are. We authorized Sandy Pait to complete the contract for the deputy.

Next meeting is our Christmas Party on December 9 at 6PM at Sandy Pait's house. Covered dish and the club will purchase Prosecco. (Sandy Pait, buyer)

Meeting was adjourned at 9:35PM.
